PIERRE DUNOYER: vers le tableau
Galleries Night

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29th at 11-12:30 PM
"EYEBALLING: Pierre Dunoyer I"
Pierre Dunoyer spent 35 years advancing his notion of the "tableau". Why is this an important concept for the artist? What is the philosophy behind his work?

Join JPNF as we explore the abstract works of French artist Pierre Dunoyer through close looking, lively discussion, drawing and other fun activities.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th at 11-12:30 PM
"FAMILY PROGRAM: Paint a 'tableau'"

What is the difference between a painting and a "tableau"? Why is the "tableau" so important to artist Pierre Dunoyer? A two-part workshop, children explore abstraction through composition, color and form to produce works inspired by painter Pierre Dunoyer's work. They will then write a short artist's statement describing what art means to them.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11th at 5-7 PM
"EYEBALLING: Pierre Dunoyer II"
What is color abstraction?

Why do contemporary artists reject representation in their work? Join JPNF as we explore the abstract works of French artist Pierre Dunoyer through close looking, lively discussion, drawing and other fun activities.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14th at 11-12:30 PM
"FAMILY PROGRAM: Abstract Drawing"

Drawing is an essential part of Pierre Dunoyer's practice. His color charcoal drawings never repeat a shape. In this workshop, children make their own abstract drawings using different mediums like pencil, charcoal and ink.
